

I am a Dishnetwork subscriber and do not support the sale of the Voom Rainbow 1 satellite and License to Dishnetwork. I think that it would be in the best interest of consumers for Voom to keep their satellite and license because it gives it will give consumers more choice in providers and allow for more competition.