

It would severely limit competition in DBS if you allow the sale/transfer of the "VOOM" satellite at 61.5 to go through. Your previous decisions (like blocking the DISH-DirectTV "merger") have been based on promoting competition among several providers.

Thank you.