

I oppose the sale these assets to Echostar. I am a Voom Subscriber and wish to continue receiving their service. I believe this would be in the public interest in that it would promote more competition within the Satellite TV industry.