

The FFC should exempt all non-profit organizations from the requirement of close captioning as these organizations are doing charitable work. The non-profit organization should not need to have to file an application for exemption.