

I am strongly against a change to the NJ "Do Not Call" law. As a consumer, I should have a right to decide if I want to receive calls from telemarketers. I would never agree to anything over the phone and require companies to send me any information in writing.