

Please quit telling me what information is good for me and what is not. If you want to focus on the effects of broadcasts on the youth, what about the way advertisements go after our children. Our kids know the swear words and nudity. Stop the ads from trying to exploit our children.