

I am interested in finding specific info on the capabilities of DSL in my area. Dial up is our only option. I have a bookkeeping and payroll business, so trying to download forms from the IRS and State is unbelievable. I spend more time on the computer due to this, than with my customers. I am planning to embark further, but dial up is "killing" me and my business. HELP!!