

Please make the requirement that buyers with hearing loss can test a mobile phone before purchase to make sure that the phone has sufficient volume and/or is compatible with hearing aids. Interference and/or lack of volume will render the phone useless for those with hearing impairments.