WEST BATON ROUGE PARISH - COMMUNITY, GROWTH, POSSIBILITIES

April, 2005 A quarterly publication for West Baton Rouge residents by your public agencies

KITE FEST IS A HIT!... Kite Fest Louisiana[®] drew many parish residents and visitors to Rivault Park March 7-9 for kite flying fun. Shown above are scenes from the event. Tourism Director Sharon Stam said, "We had very good attendance, the comments were very positive, and it was a great family event. One young boy even told me it was the best kite flying day he ever had! We will do it again next year."

Study of routes for La. 1, La. 415 extension begins

A $625,000 study of routes to extend La. Hwy. 415 over the Intracoastal Canal to La. Hwy. 1 somewhere between the Racetrak convenience store near the Intracoastal Bridge and Beaulieu Road will be underway soon, said Parish President Riley "PeeWee" Berthelot.

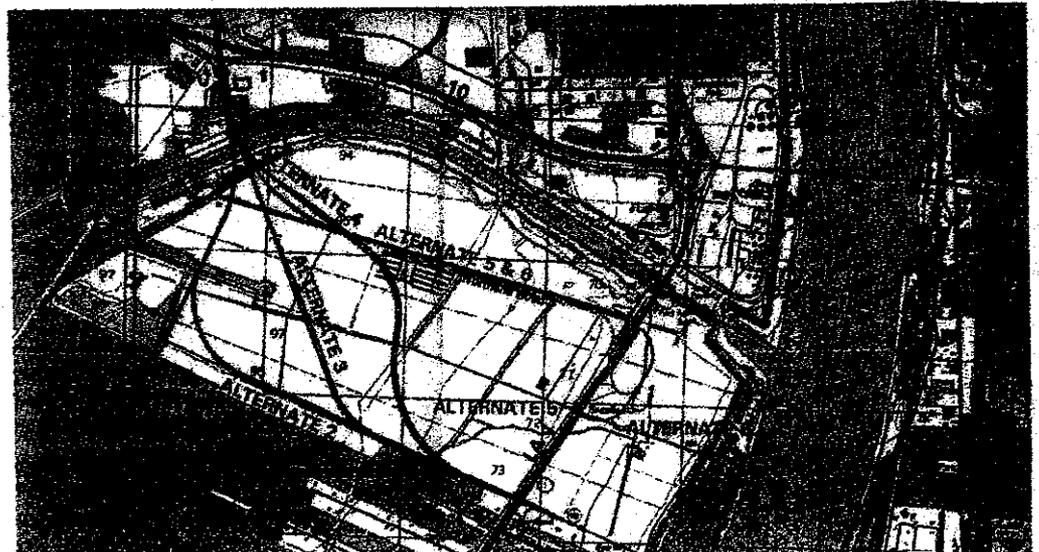

The study will determine the best route of numerous routes proposed, feasibility, and line grade. It will also include an environmental assessment and inventory. The federal government put up $500,000 for the study, while the state provided $100,000 and the parish added $25,000.

Berthelot said the state will award the study contract to an engineering firm within a few weeks. "This study will take approximately 18

Congressman Richard Baker in the federal transportation bill for the next phase of the project, which is drafting the construction plans and specifications."

Berthelot said the "connector route" first was studied in 1962, and the state studied it again in 1989. "We think this route is important for our infrastructure with the growth of the parish and we will push to get it done," Berthelot said.

Civic League committed to a strong community

The Addis Civic League is celebrating the publication of its second cookbook, Addis & Add•dat II, and is planning a taste fair to launch sales of the cookbook, said Civic League President Faye Watts.

The first cookbook was published as a fund-raiser for the organization in 1991, and a second printing of that cookbook was done in 1994. "This is an entirely new cookbook with new recipes by local residents," said Watts. "It's been a two-year process to produce the new book, and it contains some great recipes and a lot of recipes that are simple and quick." The cookbooks sell for $10 each and can be purchased now at Addis Town Hall.

The Civic League is well known in the community for its many public service projects. "Our main purpose is to bring people together who have a strong commitment to the community and to promote events that promote community unity," Watts said. Among the annual activities held by this 35-member group are an Easter Egg hunt with the Easter bunny, giving a $500 scholarship to a Brusly High graduate, giving $500 to the St. John the Baptist Church Food Pantry; and donating $500 worth of needed items to the elderly in conjunction with the Council on Aging. The organization also hosts a masquerade ball in October, and assists with many other community events like hosting the Parish Council meeting held in Addis, sponsoring candidate forums, a Halloween party for kids and New Year's dances.

One of its fund-raisers is a Memorial Tree that is housed in the Town Council meeting room. Leaves of the tree can be purchased for $50 each. "It doesn't have to be someone who is deceased; it can be a way to thank someone also," Watts said.

"We're glad to have new members," Watts said. "If you don't go out and meet your neighbors, you don't know the wonderful people in your own community." The Civic League meets on the second Monday of the month at town hall and meetings are open to the public. Dues are only $15 per year.

Officers for 2005 are: Faye Watts, President; Virlin Stewart, Vice President; Beth Toups, Treasurer; Kendul Michel, Secretary; Lisa Batts, Reporter; and Suzie Naquin, Materials Controller.

It's Spring cleaning time!

Have you done your Spring cleaning yet? It's not the inside of the house that Mayor Carroll Bourgeois wants cleaned, it's your property. "We are urging all the town residents to clean up their property, get rid of the abandoned vehicles in their yards, take a look at the condition of their trailer skirting and spruce it up if need be," the mayor said. "The people of Addis are proud of their community, and we want to keep it beautiful."

Bourgeois said residents who want to get rid of abandoned vehicles but don't know what to do, can call town hall at 687-4844 for information on companies that will tow the vehicles away at no charge to the residents. "We also want to encourage everyone to keep their yards mowed as we get into the summer season. With all of the positive growth coming to Addis, we want to keep our best foot forward," the mayor said.

Dana Strauss, cookbook co-chair; Faye Watts, Civic League president; and Sandy Broussard, cookbook co-chair, show off the Civic League's new cookbook. They are shown in front of the Memorial Tree in the Addis Council meeting room. The tree is another project of the Civic League.
