

As a person who flys over 60 round trips a year, I would highly reccommend AGAINST cell phones on flights. In such tight quarters it would create too much noise to have even 25% of the occupany talking on the phone at once. More and more public places have banned cell phone use because of the added noise that people talking on them create.
Please do not allow cell phone use on flights!!