Re: Ex Parte Presentation, Applications for Consent to the Transfer of Control of Licenses and Authorizations from Nextel Communications, Inc. and its Subsidiaries to Sprint Corporation, WT Docket No. 05-63

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 27, 2005, Philip L. Verveer, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, outside counsel to Sprint Corporation; Steven C. Salop, Professor of Economics and Law, Georgetown University Law Center and Senior Consultant, CRA International ("CRA"); Stanley M. Besen, Vice President, John R. Woodbury, Vice President, and Jeffrey Underwood, Analyst, CRA; and A. Richard Metzger, Jr. and the undersigned, Lawler, Metzger, Milkman & Keeney, LLC, outside counsel to Nextel Communications, Inc., met with Walter D. Strack and Sara Mechanic of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau and Joel Rabinovitz of the Office of General Counsel to discuss economic issues related to the above-referenced proceeding. In particular, CRA representatives explained why the record demonstrates that the merger raises no credible concerns regarding unilateral effects.

Pursuant to the Commission's rules, this letter is being filed electronically in the record of the above-referenced docket. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Regina M. Keeney
