

Please reject this petition. It's very intrusive to have banks and credit card companies (affiliated with banks) call at all ours with their solicitations. Telemarketing is telemarketing - regardless of the industry and it's worse than spam on my pc, because my children often answer the phone.