

It is a privilege to have laws preventing telemarketing co. from interfering with our lives in Indiana. The last thing I need after a long day at work and limiting time with my kids is a telemarketing phone call. We need Indiana laws to protect us from telemarketing intrusion into our busy lives. Thanks.