

As a small business owner, I know that a telephone is an important business tool, however, badly used it is a nightmare for everyone involved in rec. unsolicited calls. With the ever increasing weaking of FTC rulings, it is my hope that the do not call list is maintained.