

I am not in favor of weakening Indiana's "Do Not Call" list rules by allowing entities, previously barred from calling me, to call me for purposes of telemarketing.

Any representative from my area who votes to weaken this law will not receive my vote in the future.