

My mother has Alzheimers Disease and she does not need to be bothered and harassed by telemarketers. A clever talking marketer can influence or even intimidate seniors in their own homes into buying unwanted and unneeded products they can not afford. We are very happy with Indiana's law limiting telemarketers.