

I am strongly opposed to any company having the legal right to call my home and "sell" me their product/service. It is an invasion of my privacy. Please respect that and enforce these companies to do the same.