

Dear Sirs/Maddams, For years I was contacted by telephone at all hours by one group or another. None were ever prompted by me. After the Indiana "Don't Call" law went on the books, I was able to relax at home with very few interruptions. I have become used to actually being able to sit through dinner without being interrupted.

Please do not pass any bill that will weaken the Indiana "Don't Call" law.