

The wife and I continue to oppose any effort by any organization to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. The individual states should be able to regulate telemarketing efforts within its borders.