

Please leave our Indiana No-call phone list in tact for us who do not want these pestering calls. It has been such a relief to be rid of them. Don't mess with this law. Those of us on it think it is the best thing happened since sliced bread. Individual States must have some control over this...get out of it.