

I like Indiana's no call list. We used to get bothered every evening by calls from telemarketers. Since joining the list, we are able to enjoy peaceful evening. My family enjoys peaceful evenings. I think it would be a shame to try to weaken Indiana's Telephone privacy law. The last thing I was are people calling us up again in the evening bothering us again.