

Since Indiana made it possible to stop telemarketers from calling me, my quality of live has improved significantly. I abhor these unwanted intrusions in my life and strenuously call on the FCC to not interfere with the Indiana law