

Please do not change the telephone privacy law. I do not want telemarketers calling or people wanting donations. I will buy or give what I want when I want and do not appreciate getting calls interrupting my privacy. The callers are so persistent and take advantage of the elderly.