

Indiana's No-Call List protects my privacy by eliminating unwanted calls made to me over technology that I pay for and that I do not wish used for commercial purposes. Unwanted calls are undue interference.