

Indiana's Do Not Call law has been a god-send. Before this law, I recieved multiple telemarketing calls daily. It was intrusive and annoying. What little time I have with my family was constantly interrupted by someone trying to sell me something I didn't need and wasn't intrested in. Since this law has been passed I no longer dread answering the phone. Any weakening of this law would be a great disappointment. Advertising and marketing appears everywhere else, please leave the sanctity of home alone!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
