

Indiana has the privilege of not getting unwanted calls. Phone solicitation should not be permitted or approved in any state. Our household requests that no consideration to rescind no-call regulations be considered for Indiana or any other state with approved no-call regulations. Businesses have plenty of avenues for soliciting consumers. Keep phones, e-mail and other communication means free of business solicitation.

Thanks for your consideration,
Richard Bohlander