

Any action to circumvent the existing no-call law in Indiana is inappropriate. Since the inception of the no call list in Indiana I have participated and I cannot begin to express the joy of not having hundreds of calls to sell me something I don't want. We need to stop the invasion of my personal space by vendors making telephone solicitations.