

We work different shifts and sleep different shifts. It is so wonderful NOT to have calls at all hours from people trying to sell us stuff we don't want. Please don't ruin the Indiana Do Not Call List. It is one of the best things to happen to the people of this state. You ought to use Indiana's no call list as a model for the whole country.