

I am commenting on the telephone privacy act of Indiana and my excellent experience with it. No longer are my dinner's interrupted by rude salespeople calling my home or soliciting things without my consent. Please do not resend this law and keep it in place.