

The Indiana Do Not Call law is working fine and has been upheld by various courts and the FCC should not interfere with it.