

After my business phone number was entered into the no call list. I was able to get phone calls from my customers and not from someone trying to sell me something. If I was looking for a service I would call the business I needed. Thank you David Richards