

I believe this is a clear depiction of big government trying to "assume" what is best. WE are the people, not the banks, the government was designed represent us and I don't feel this bill represents us at all.