

I am vary upset over the Consumer Banker's Association's effort to impose an "established business relationship" on Indiana consumers. We may have a business relationship with the various companies, but that DOES NOT GIVE THEM THE RIGHT TO DISTURB OUR PRIVACY AT HOME WITH THEIR TELEMARKETING. They can send junk mail that we can throw away. The government is taking away our personal rights to our privacy. The government needs to stay out of personal decisions. Personal rights should out weigh corporate greed.
