

Indiana's law stopping calls that are unwanted by the receiving party has been working well. Why would we want this changed? We, the people, should have some control of this.