

Regarding the proposals to weaken or circumvent the do-not-call list currently in use in the state of Indiana: I strenuously oppose this action, and demand that you not allow any business concerns or persons to call individuals who have legally placed their names and telephone numbers on this list. To allow this would be a grievous miscarriage, and a further blow to our rights of privacy as guaranteed us by law. Do not allow this to happen.