

I do not support any weaking of Indiana's Do Not Call List. Prior to this list I would receive at least one unsoliciated call each evening. It is intrusive to my personal life, and caused unneeded stress because I was forced to be rude to people. Don't change the law. Thank you, Anthony Welch