

Please do not water down IN telephone privacy law. The federal law should be stronger than IN, not weaker. We should not have to endure the inconvenience from these calls. IN is doing a great service to its citizens by having such high standards.