

Before Indiana enacted this law, we were receiving 10 to 15 calls per day, most of them during the evening hours. Weaking this law is wrong. It ruined our home life and privacy before this law was enacted.