

Indiana's law regulating telemarketing phone calls are in the best interests of Indiana's citizens. No longer are my family interrupted and annoyed by unwanted, unneeded and unnecessary calls. My family can enjoy an evening together without any telemarketing and nuisance calls. Please consider the sanctity of the home and family in all decisions concerning the privacy of citizens. Yours truly, Gene Johnson