

I just read an article about bank's complaining that they should be able to disturb me all hours of the day and night to sell me a service that if I wanted in the first place (I WOULD HAVE CALLED)!!!!!!

Since signing up for the NO CALL LIST my life has been happier. I don't worry when I answer the phone that it is a telemarketer. I don't think everyone realizes that if you open the no call list up to one service, ALL SERVICES are going to jump on the band wagon and we the people will have to suffer again. It will have made a complete circle definitely to the NEGATIVE.
