

Please don't change the telephone privacy call. We have enjoyed the peace and quiet that the law has brought to our home. Once you give the banks a loop hole they will take advantage of the law and begin solitation over the phone randomly. I wish there was a similar law to stop the fifteen mailings I get per week from banks. It's a waste.