

I have been on the no-call list in Indiana since its inception and have been very pleased. Before that, we were bothered almost every day and evening with unwanted phone calls. Please do not weaken the law by reversing or changing it. Thank you for your time and consideration.