

The Indiana Do Not Call List should be maintained. It is quite disturbing to be constantly interrupted by banks, charities, etc., when I am working. I work in a home office. Prior to the do not call list, I was constantly being disturbed by telemarketers or their computer messages. Sometimes, they refused to hang up! Please do not erode our protection from these people.