

Honorable Gentlemen and Ladies,

I support strong state-level protections against telemarketing and have no desire to receive pre-recorded messages or telemarketing, even from my own banks and companies with which I do business.

The FCC should fix the "established business relationship" loophole so that businesses can't telemarket individuals unless they first give clear notice of the intent to telemarket, and gain verifiable, affirmative consent of the customer. An opt-in approach, perhaps with postage-paid return letters, would be one approach.

The FCC should deny the petitions filed in the following docket numbers: CG Docket No. 02-278, DA 05-1346, DA 05-1347, DA 04-3185, DA 04-3187, DA 04-3835, DA 04-3836, DA 04-3837, and DA 05-342.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Regards,

Aryeh Goretsky
