

I support the proposed elimination of the morse code requirement to obtain a amateur radio operator license.