

I am a General class Amateur Radio Operator, callsign KI4FRK. I am against removing the Morse Code requirement to have access to the HF bands. Morse Code is a universal language and is crucial for emergency use. Hams must learn about other modes of transmission that they may or may not use, why not code? I hope Amateur Radio doesn't turn into what CB is now.