

I support the elimination of Morse code testing as a requirement for amateur radio licensing.