

All I see is that my rates go up, my service options down. I depend on cable not only for tv but more importantly for high speed internet access. I want more competition to keep my rates inline. I don't think that any monopoly is in the interest of the people. Businesses like access providers serve by the will of the owners - the people. Stop giving my stuff away and making me pay more to get it back!!!!!!