

Monopolies are a serious problem in this country, and a communications monopoly is one of the most troubling and frightening. These huge companies can decide what information Americans can receive, and charge whatever they want for it. Comcast in Philadelphia charges around $50 a month just for basic services and the prices keep going up and up. Could that be because they have no competition?

Please vote against any legislation that will allow our already narrow media to get even narrower.