

Why would the FCC even consider tampering with something that so greatly benefits consumers - even at the request of the telemarketing industry.

I support your upholding the availability and use of the tougher provision presently in effect in Wisconsin.

Thank you.